

Veterans to Discuss

New Liquor Act

Convention of Secretaries May Be Called Early in New Year

To discuss the new liquor act, a convention of secretaries of veterans' clubs throughout the province will probably be held early in the new year. The matter has been under consideration by officials of these organizations for some time and a definite announcement will probably be made within the next week or ten days.

The object of such a convention, it was explained, would be two-fold. First, to discuss the various problems which the many clubs encounter in connection with the privileges which they now enjoy in the selling of beer, and again it was felt after the views of the various officials had been put forward something concrete in the way of suggested amendments to the present act insofar as clubs are affected might be agreed upon. These would then be placed before the provincial government previous to the next session of the legislature.

Officials from the various clubs of the Great War Veterans' Association, Army and Navy Veterans' Association and the Imperial Veterans in Canada would attend such a gathering, it was stated.

HOCKEY MEETING

A hockey organization meeting will be held at the Rest Rooms next Wednesday evening December 17th at 8 o'clock. All those interested in hockey are invited to attend to arrange the program and game series for the season.

WATERTON LAKES GOSSIP

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Morris were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Morris' parents at Twin Butte, Mr. and Mrs. William Huddleston.

D. H. Ellison and wife, of Cardston, who have considerable property interests here, were Sunday visitors at the park. They report the motor road from Cardston to the lakes in excellent condition for travel.

William Carnell, of Parkview, was fortunate enough to bag an exceptionally large deer close to his home last week and very kindly journeyed to Waterton with sufficient venison to give everyone here a portion, which was much enjoyed.

R. McKenzie, of Caldwell, was a two-day visitor to the park this week, the guest of his daughter Mrs. R. M. Christensen.

W. B. Foster has commenced the construction of a second cottage south of Cameron Falls. His present cottage near the falls is a model in log construction and no doubt this new one will be a credit to the park.

Corpl. and Mrs. Ford were Sunday visitors at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Baker, of Twin Butte.

Rumors are ripe at Waterton of another wedding in the very near future of one of our young men to a Macleod lady, this event to take place between now and Christmas. Further particulars will soon follow for publication.

A. H. Harwood is getting out a set of building logs with which he will immediately commence the building of a garage at his home.

SOCIAL EVENT.

Inspector and Mrs. Morgan of Macleod, held an "At Home" at their residence here on Thursday afternoon the 4th, in honor of their son Arthur who has just returned from Paris, France, where he successfully passed his examinations in language and science and received his diploma from each department. He was the first Canadian to receive a scholarship from the French government, through their university and in connection with the University of Alberta. Miss Mary Anderson of Edmonton has been recommended by the president and dean of Alberta University, for this year, and she is now on her way to France.

Miss Kirk, noted water color artist, a guest of Mrs. Morgan, occupied the front parlor, with her paintings, which were sketched in and around Macleod, during the Jubilee. The Waterton Lakes, and Crow's Nest Pass mountains and streams, Banff, with its great mountain peaks, and caves, while the Atlantic and Pacific provinces were well represented in the paintings exhibited.

During the evening and afternoon, Miss Ellis entertained the many guests at the piano, and some of her pupils established the fact of Miss Ellis, as a teacher, in both vocal and instrumental music.

Miss L. McLean and Orval Kirk premed themselves as entertainers in a social way. The solo of Arthur Morgan, and Orval Kirk, the flute, and pian were judged by the critics present as very good.

The guest list included Mrs. Judge McDonald, Mrs. R. E. Gardiner, Mrs. A. F. Grady, Mrs. R. Russell, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Geo. McFarquhar, Mrs. H. C. Winter, Mrs. Dr. Kirk, Mrs. Dr. Fansett, Mrs. A. CARE OF COLTS.

The condition of the horse market during the past number of years has been rather discouraging to horse breeders, consequently, fewer mares have been bred, with the resultant decrease in the annual colt crop. Young horses, and especially colts, are scarce. This condition is noted all over the Dominion. But the past year has seen an improvement in the market.

It is important in the raising of good quality of horses that farmers and breeders pay the utmost attention to the present foal crop. Generally speaking, on the average farm, colts as a rule take poor luck. Growth and development during the first two years of the colt's life means the difference between success and failure. It is, therefore, important, after wean-

FOR ROAD WORK

Edmonton, Dec. 8.—Some money in payment on road work account will be coming from Ottawa, to enrich the Alberta provincial treasury, almost any day now. A first instalment on the federal grant for road-building work done during the present year is expected before the end of the month, with more to follow later. The total for which Alberta has qualified, according to Hon. Alex. Ross, minister of public works, is in the vicinity of $250,000.

SHOOT LARGE BLACK BRUIN

It is not the luck of every hunter to add to his bag a big seven foot black bear, weighing over 400 pounds. But four young nimrods all under 20 years of age, and inexperienced are the proud accomplishers of this very onerous achievement.

The four youthful hunters in question are Fred Clarke, Herb Young, Jameson and Hopewell, the latter being a young Englishman, only out in the country a few months. The animal was secured in the hills a few miles north west of Spring Point, and was killed with three rifle wounds in the head, only one had missed his target the other three all registering.

The huge beast was taken out by sleigh and is now on view at Burn's Butcher store, where he awaits the cutting-up operations of butcher Thornton.

ing, to see that the colts get a fair chance in life. They should have the right kind of feed to promote maximum growth. Alfalfa hay is considered one of the best roughages for young colts. Western rye grass and timothy are excellent, and good oat straw will be found valuable if other forages are not available. In addition to the above, the youngsters should have a liberal ration of bruised or rolled oats. Bran is not necessary when alfalfa hay is being fed. However, it should be included in the ration when western rye grass, timothy or oat straw are used.

Keep the colts growing, thrifty and not excessively fat. Provide a roomy box stall, with plenty of ventilation. Keep the manure cleaned away every day; too often the feet are spoiled by excessive accumulation of heating manure in the stalls. Handle quietly and learn to lead; this training will help considerably when trimming their feet, which should have attention every month or six weeks. Keep their feet round and level on the soles. This tends to prevent the feet from breaking and the heels from contracting. Many good horses have been ruined through lack of attention to their feet.

Chocolate Frosting

Melt 1-1/2 squares chocolate over hot water, gradually add 13 cup scalded cream, a few grains salt, the yolk of 1 egg, and 1/2 teaspoon melted butter. Stir in enough confectioners' sugar to make it spread easily, then add 1/2 teaspoon vanilla.

great church, his hazardous swinging on the tight rope, and the risk of the gruesome scene of his castigation in the market place, and the pathos of his final act as dying, he rings his own death knell on his beloved bells, are features, it is said, that make "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" the most noted film production to date.

In constructing the Cathedral of Notre Dame at Universal City an army of carpenters, masons and other mechanics were employed. The building is an exact replica in every detail as the famous Cathedral looked in 1482. It is declared to be a extraordinary feat and an architectural and technical triumph.

In addition to the Cathedral, other historical sets include exact reproductions of the Court of Miracles, Place du Parvis, Palace de Justice, interior of the Bastille and the seven Noble Mansions. This may give a faint idea of this, the accredited most important screen production, not only in the history of the Universal Film Company, but of that of any producing concern in the world. Wallace Worsley was the director.

Among the other principals in the big cast are: Norman Kerry, who plays "Phoebus"; Tully Marshall, as "Louis XI"; Raymond Hatton, as "Gringore"; Nigel de Brulier, as "Dom Claude"; and Gladys Brockwell as the crazy "Goudale".

With "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" it is said, that a "different picture" has arrived, one that marks the dawn of a new era in cinema art, and one that has, made Carl Laemmle the slogan of "better and finer productions" an absolute fact.

"WAGES OF VIRTUE" ROMANCE OF FRENCH "FORGOTTEN LEGION"

New Gloria Swanson Paramount Film Coming to Empress

The Foreign Legion! What a glamorous thrill, what an epitome of adventure, what a swift-winged flight of imagination these three countless words haunt before our tranquil lives. Three words whose full significance seems to have been vividly plucked from the ideally symbolic tricolor of France itself, and planted in the corner of a foreign land that is for ever all the world's own monument of courage.

Supreme Court

With Mr. Justice Tweedie presiding, a lengthy and interesting civil sittings of the Supreme Court opened in Macleod on Tuesday of last week, and continued until Monday listening to the final case on the docket, Maunsell vs the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation Company.

The following is the list of cases: Chalmers vs Chalmers, action for divorce, adjourned.

VALUES

Far from the din of the city's strife, From its toil and struggle, its pomp and show,

You have found your place in the vast world's work, Out where the winds of God Can blow.

Yours is the joy of the morning stars, The whitening dawn and the silvery moon.

The clarion call of the meadow-lark, And the flowing warmth of the sunlit noon.

Ours is the strife of men with men, The struggle for gain at another's loss.

The daily searching after gold, The nightly finding it but dross.

Ay, truly, you who live and work In the great, wide places of the earth, Have wisely chosen the better part, And proved your right of Godlike birth....

Say not of us who spend our lives, In toil within the city's walls, That thus we lose our heritage, And hear not when the Spirit calls.

We know full well the mighty spell Of open roads and starlit nights, The lure of ever-changing seas, The wondrous thrill of mountain heights.

But greater is the human touch— The look of love in a brother's eye, The friendly clasp of another's hand, Or helping a stranger passing by.

And deep in the city's throbbing heart We feel the pulse of hurrying throngs, And death each fleeting thought that moves, To sudden tears or gladness songs.

—Florence Cornell Terry.

claims to glory," that the new Paramount picture, "Wages of Virtue," is woven—or, rather, adroitly, beautiful young daughter of the regiment.

Gloria Swanson plays Carmelita, an Italian girl who becomes the pride of the Legion.

"Wages of Virtue," adapted to the screen by Forrest Halsey from the novel by Percival Wren, is a heart-rending romance of an Algerian barracks town. Carmelita is rescued from death by Luigi, strong man with a small, traveling side-show. He kills a man over love for the girl and joins the Foreign Legion to escape punishment for his crime. The girl, with absolute faith in him, follows and opens a cafe in town.

Carmelita meets and falls in love with a young American recruit. John Boule, a veteran of the regiment, sees that Luigi is not true to the girl and tells her so.

Luigi is furious over the girl's new love affair. He and the American fight, and Luigi is stabbed in the back by a legionnaire who has long nursed a grudge against the regimental bully.

Carmelita knows that the American will be accused of the crime, and with Boule's help they manage to escape into the desert, where they are attacked by a small band of Arabs and—

But why go further and ruin a perfectly delightful evening's entertainment? Here's the finest Swanson picture of all time. Many former members of the Legion, under the direction of one of its foremost heroes, actually take part in this swift-moving production which will be the feature next Monday and Tuesday at the Empress Theatre.

Ben Lyon (courtesy of First National Pictures) has the leading man's role opposite the star. Others in the strong supporting cast are Norman Trevor, Ivan Linow and Joe Moore.

BETTY COMPTON STAR IN PARAMOUNT SCREEN VERSION OF CYNTHIA STOCKLEY STORY, "DALLA, THE LION CUB"

A story of the African veldt with its hidden dangers, volcanic hates and cyclonic loves—that's "The Female," Gloria Swanson's latest Paramount picture, which begins a two-day engagement at the Empress Theatre next Wednesday. It's an adaptation by Agnes Christine Johnston of Cynthia Stockley's powerful novel, "Dalla, the Lion Cub." Cynthia Stockley knew Africa as Evans vs Evans, action for divorce, adjourned.

Farrar vs Can. Pac. Railway, $25,000 damages. This was a case brought by Mrs. Farrar for the death of her son who was killed on April 24th last at Clareholm, on the C.P.R. property within a short distance of the depot, by an incoming southbound train. The C.P.R. were represented by A. L. Smith, K.C., of Calgary, and the plaintiff by J. W. McDonald, K.C., of Macleod. It was a jury case and they brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, and she was awarded $1,500 damages and the defendants to pay costs.

Fairhurst vs Fairhurst, action for divorce, adjourned to Lethbridge.

Prohopyk vs Prohopyk, action for divorce, adjourned to Lethbridge.

Lockard vs Johnson, action for accounting, this case was disposed of out of court. J. D. Matheson, of Macleod, for the plaintiff and J. L. Fawcett for the defendant.

Broomer vs Broomer, action for divorce, the case was adjourned for further evidence to be submitted.

Rex vs Kerpenchuk, application to quash conviction, application dismissed. J. D. Matheson, of Macleod, for the Crown, and J. W. McDonald, K.C., for the applicant.

Rex vs D. Siple, application to quash conviction, application dismissed. J. D. Matheson, for the Crown, and F. D. McKenna for Siple.

Hansen vs Stedman, for $950.00. This was a case where the plaintiff brought action for payment of commission on the sale of the Queen's Hotel, Macleod, to one J. Douglas, which transaction fell through as the would-be purchaser was found to be unable to complete the transaction under the Bankruptcy Act. His Lordship reserved judgment until receiving the written arguments of the counsel for the plaintiff and defendant. Messrs. McArdle and Davidson, of Calgary, for plaintiff, and J. W. McDonald, K.C., for defendant.

Northern Trusts Co. vs Haney, et al. Proof of will in solemn form Hearing adjourned to next Court.

Maunsell and Buckwell vs Lethbridge Northern Irrigation Company. This is a case where the plaintiffs who occupy land north of Macleod, known as the Ivy ranch, are bringing action for $25,000 damages for destruction of their land by seepage of water from the main canal of well as the average person in a small town knows his Main Street. Several of the works of this popular author have been screened, prominent among which have been "Pink Gods" and "Ponjola." Her novels and stories are colorful, packed with tense, dramatic action and they lend themselves admirably to the screen.

In "Dalla, the Lion Cub," which for screen purposes has been rechristened "The Female," Miss Stockley tells the story of an ignorant, illiterate, unsophisticated little Boer girl, of great natural beauty and courage, who becomes a dazzling, accomplished woman of the world, showing the aptness of her name, "the lion cub" by the ferocity with which she pursues joy and happiness, routes her enemies and forces the realization of her dreams.

It is a role that calls for an actress of marvelous beauty and finished ability—one who can portray a dual personality with sincerity and skill. Film fans will agree that Betty Compson was the ideal choice. It is a part exactly suited to her radiant personality. In support of Miss Compson, Director Wood has assembled a notable array of screen talent. The four featured roles are in the capable hands of Warner Baxter, Noah Beery, Dorothy Cumming and Freeman Wood.

Better come early if you want to avoid the rush!

ERNEST TORRENCE WINS FAME IN TWO SPOT FEATURES ALL WITHIN SPACE OF SIX MONTHS

Fortunate indeed is the actor lucky enough to have a role in a production which scores one of the biggest hits in the history of the cinema art, but when he comes right back as a featured member of the cast of another production hailed as greatest of all, he can surely be said to be a child of destiny. Such is Ernest Torrence, who plays one of the principal roles in "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," which opens its local engagement at the Empress Theatre soon.

Torrence was given lavish praise for his work in "The Covered Wagon," but all who have seen him in the new Universal production, admit that he has accomplished a piece of art that will go down into history. In "The Hunchback of Notre Dame" his part is second only to that of Lon Chaney, the star, who portrays the role of "Quasimodo." Torrence will be seen as "Clopin, King of the Underworld." It is no reflection on either man to say that with any other man than Chaney in the title role Torrence would have "stolen" the stellar honors.

While every show that makes a decided hit in New York does not do so here, theatre-goers from this city who have seen the performance at the Astor Theatre in Gotham, have expressed the opinion that it will prove as great a success here. There is no question but that Hugo's story is so well known and liked that sectional likes and dislikes will play no part in determining its general popularity, and the unanimous praise given it by the New York critics has aroused a general attitude of interest.

Aside from Chaney and Torrence, the cast is one of the most notable ever assembled, there being a total of 75 principals, including Tully Marshall, Brandon Hurst, Peter Ruth Miller, Gladys Brockwell, Nor-the Lethbridge Northern Irrigation project. J. D. Matheson, of Macleod, for the plaintiff and Maunsell, Shepherd and Dunlop, of Lethbridge, for the defendants. The last case is one of considerable interest in Macleod and district as the plaintiff was formerly one of the largest ranchers in Alberta, and the property concerned one of the best known ranches to all cattlemen. The water seeping through from the ditch has flooded this property rendering it practically useless for either cultivation or pasture.

The final finding of Mr. Justice Tweedie, in the Maunsell vs Lethbridge Northern Irrigation companies case, was $7,500 for the plaintiff. The case did not finish until Monday of this week. J. D. Matheson, barrister of Macleod, ably conducted the case on behalf of the plaintiffs, and the defendant company was represented by Messrs. Shepherd and Dunlop of Lethbridge.

DARING RIDING IN "THE SILENT STRANGER"

Fred Thomson's display of horsemanship in the Film Booking Office release "The Silent Stranger," coming to the Empress Theatre on Friday and Saturday, is nothing short of remarkable.

Thomson's rescue of a baby girl from a buckboard runaway is not only exciting and courageous, but incorporates three daring stunts in one. He dashes into the path of the on-rushing horse, grabs the bridle of one horse and swings himself between the team, climaxing this bit of daring by standing on the galloping horses to furnish scenes for some very thrilling Roman riding.

Hazel Keener plays the feminine lead opposite Thomson. Miss Keener is not only an actress of exceptional ability, but a noted beauty as well, having won many prizes in beauty contests, among these the Chicago Tribune national contest. Others in the cast are: George Williams, Richard Woodard, Frank Hagerty, Harold Carpenter and "Silver King," Thomson's wonder horse. "The Silent Stranger" is a story of a woman's devotion, directed by Albert Sargent.

Local Christmas

Parade Early

In connection with the Christmas mails it has been pointed out that parcels for United States postage should be mailed early enough to give them ample time to go through the U. S. customs. Postoffice officials again urge that all Christmas mail be dispatched well ahead of time, and suggest that if gifts are mailed early they may be reached "Not to be opened until Christmas."

The last possible dates of dispatches of Christmas mails from Calgary for points on the American continent and islands touched by regular mail carrying boats are as follows:

Jamaica, Bermuda, Barbados, Leeward Islands, British Guiana, Trinidad, Bahamas, Honduras, Colombia, must leave Calgary on December 7 for dispatch from Halifax to the Canadian Navigation and the Canadian Forester on December 12 and 13.

Maritime provinces, December 19, Quebec, December 20, Ontario, December 20; Manitoba on morning of December 23; Saskatchewan, on the morning of December 23; British Columbia, northern section, December 23.

UNOCCUPIED RESIDENCE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Early Tuesday morning the Fire Brigade turned out to answer a call at the residence of Mrs. Hall on 19th Street. When the fire fighters arrived the building was blazing furiously and in spite of their efforts, the residence was completely destroyed. The property is owned by Mrs. Louisa Hall, of Macleod, who until a short while ago was engaged on the Hospital staff. The premises are insured with the K. A. Y. Insurance Agency in Macleod.

PROV. NEWSAlberta's Triumph at Chicago
The Province of Alberta triumphed
over the world in new fields of competition in the International Grain and Livestock Show at Chicago during the past week, and swept the boards in several classes.Although the world championship in wheat and oats did not come Alberta's way this year as it did in 1923, successes of a more outstanding nature were won. The real triumph was in the winning of the championship in alfalfa seed by Nich Chelita
of Brooks, with some of his neighbors
also in the winning list in the same class. This competition has always been considered to be the exclusive field of certain districts of the United States, and Alberta's triumph has demonstrated that this Province is capable not only of producing world
winning grains but also world winning fodder crops.The world championship in wheat
this year went to Saskatchewan,
Canada winning this championship for the thirteenth time.In livestock Alberta also scored an outstanding success, winning no less than three championships in horses in the three entries made for these,and winning also many events in the cattle classes.Although the records of winnings are not yet complete, the following are some of the prizes taken:In Hereford cattle, the Alberta University bred calf took first. This calf also took the first in the John Clay special for Agricultural colleges,
etc., and also took second and reserve
championship in Hereford special.
The University also took third place in the John Clay special group of five steers. Frank Collicutt of Crossfield took first in senior Hereford, heifers
and fourth in two-year-olds. A. O.
Borgs of Daysland got a place in every event in Herefords, and got second in herd of graded Herefords and fifth in Hereford bulls. He also got a reserve junior championship.In shorthorns, the shorthorn heifer Princeton Rosewood from the Prince's ranch took first in its class. J. G.
Clarke's shorthorn calf exhibited by the University took third, and the Prince of Wales' King of the Prairies took fourth in its class.In Angus cattle, Henderson of Lacombe got second in the aged cow class. The calf shown by the University and given by Dickson and Hunter got fourth, and 9th in this class went to the Clemens Bros. calf shown by the University. Henderson got fourth in Angus bulls, and in the three-year-old class the Lacombe Experimental Farm took fourth.In horses, the sensational win was that of Wee Donald, of Weaver Bros., Lloydminster, who captured the championship in that class for the third time. The Lacombe Farm won championships also with its shire stallion and mare.

Alberta's Population

According to new estimates of the population of Canadian Provinces made by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, Alberta's population is now 637,000, as compared with 588,000 shown by the census of 1921, an increase of almost 50,000.

November Homestead Entries

A total of 74 entries for homesteads was recorded at the Edmonton Land Office during the month of November. These are practically all for homesteads in central and northern Alberta.

Shipments of Wheat

Some idea of South-Western Alberta's wheat crop the past season is shown in the fact that approximately 18,000,000 bushels of wheat have already been shipped out of the Lethbridge division of the C. P. R., which includes the territory from Macleod to Dunmore and North to Okotoks.

Irrigation Farmer's Success

As an instance of successful irrigation farming the Lethbridge Herald quotes the experience of Ellis
Parker, who two years ago bought 160 acres on the United Irrigation Project near Cardston. During the past season he harvested a crop which yielded him sufficient money to pay for his quarter section at $34.00
an acre, pay his taxes for three years and leave him with a substantial surplus. He got an average of 64 bushels an acre of wheat for which he received $1.52 bushel net.

Alberta's Infant Death Rate

A decrease in Alberta's infant death rate is shown in the Vital Statistics of the Province for 1923
contained in the Report of the Registrar, Donald Mackie, just issued.
The decrease in the infant death rate from 1922 was 1.39, and was 6.19 per cent. less than the average of the preceding five years. The total deaths of the Province showed a decrease of 438 from 1922 figures.
There were 15,153 births registered during 1923, and 4,117 marriages, a decrease from the previous year.
Two-thirds of the births were of English-speaking parentage.

Irrigation Course Planned

A course in practical irrigation farming, similar to that held last year, will be held at the Dominion Experimental Farm at Lethbridge on Monday, February 2, and running for the full week until the following Saturday. Lectures and demonstrations on subjects of interest to irrigation farmers will be held morning and afternoon. The course is being held jointly by the experimental farms branch of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, and the Provincial Department of Agriculture, and has been planned as a result of the requests from irrigation farmers who benefitted from the course held last year. Similar courses are also to be held in the Brooks district, dates and places of these to be announced later.

A WESTERN FAVORITE

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal is far and away the most popular paper in the West. For more than half a century it has been the wise counsellor and good friend of the western settler, old and new.
In most parts of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, and British Columbia it is difficult to find a home where the Family Herald is not read.
It is an all round paper that serves and satisfies every member of the family, young and old. To the western farmer, the farm sections of the Family Herald alone are worth ten times the subscription price. This year there is a beautiful calendar, ten thousand dollars in prizes and other valuable rewards given to subscribers.
A catalogue of rewards will be sent free of charge to any address. What astounds the public is the giving of such a grand paper for two dollars.Science hasn't yet produced a loud speaker that can beat a self-made man.One objection to being a swell dresser is that the grocer becomes so important about what one owes him.

TRAIN RADIO OPERATOR

THE wireless operator is a familiar and sought for figure on the ocean liners of today. The radio operator aboard the all-steel Continental Limited, the transcontinental express of the Canadian National Railways, is fast becoming known and daily
he is fulfilling his part of the work of the regular train crew on that service. The photograph illustrates the uniforms worn by the radio operators, similar in many respects to that of the operator of the ocean liner, but bearing on the labels and cap the monogram of the Canadian National Railways.
The suit is tailored of fine blue serge with double breasted coat with gold buttons and one stripe
of gold braid on the sleeve, indicating the rank. The Canadian National Railways are the first company to inaugurate this service
as a regular part of their equipment.The game of life is most enjoyable to those who make some effort to qualify for the finals.It isn't so very difficult to love your neighbors if you must depend on them for a living.So many mortals will be vexed when they find St. Peter not at all deferential. Man seldom gets the last word, but he can beat any woman slapping a door.

square dance, and compassed about by enjoyment.

Fate has a most peculiar way of doing things, which was emphasized at the Bazaar given by the Ladies of the Presbyterian Church, when a single young man was the lucky winner of the very handsome bedspread offered for the nearest correct guess to the number of beans in a jar. W. Whitworth was the fortunate winner.

The wedding of Pauline Stockton (daughter of J. H. Stockton) and Eddie Thompson was solemnized in Macleod on Friday evening last at the home of the bride. A large number of friends of the young couple were present and the evening was spent in dancing and social intercourse. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left Friday night for a short honeymoon trip, and they expect to be back in Macleod a few days before Christmas.

The Macleod Curriers were looking forward to a real good start this week on the ice. J. Pringle had the ice coming along fine on Tuesday, when, lo, the weather man suddenly turned perverse and foolish and sent along a beautiful warm chinook. There are 14 rinks this season and some close games are looked forward to. Most of the rinks are nearly made up, and any would-be curriers for this season are asked to give their names in to Secretary Joe Marks at once. The annual local bonspiel will be held this season in January, and according to all accounts it will be the best ever.

REACH & COMPANY, LTD.

DRY GOODS, BOOTS & SHOES, CLOTHING, ETC., GROCERIES, EVAPORATED AND FRESH FRUITS

IT is getting near Xmas and the New Year, and the Grocery Department is making preparations. Crystallized fruits and candy look very tempting, all kinds of vegetables, hot house salads, grapes, oranges, apples and bananas. We will notify you later on of all additions to our united Happy Vegetable and Fruit Family.

DRY GOODS

We are making preparations for Xmas, and we strongly advise you to buy your gifts while you have the money, also while the selection is fresh and varied. Later on you won't have such a large range to choose from. It is wonderful how little in the way of Xmas Gifts it will cost you. For a gift costing you 25 cents or one dollar the returns one hundred fold increased. It is worth you boys and girls, to sacrifice a quarter or fifty cents to buy an initial handkerchief for your Mother and Father and see the vapor mist enveloping their eyes, to think they were not forgotten by their loved ones. We have on hand the largest stock of INITIAL HANKERCHIEFS we ever had. Initials for your mother, father, sisters and brothers. Exchange the courtesies of this festive Season. You girls, buy a tie for your brothers. You boys, buy a handkerchief of that exquisite bobbed hair sister of yours. Oh; what a happy atmosphere will be created.
